

This home is a

HUMAN SANCTUARY

In This House:

We give non-violent consequences.

We encourage each other.

Each person is an individual.

Everyone is responsible for his/her own mess and success.

Everyone is allowed to feel good about his/her own body, and to have a safe 'bubble' of space.

We talk openly about feelings and problems.

We don't hit or hurt anyone.

We don't put each other down or call each other names.

No one is unfavorably compared to someone else.

No one is 'rescued' from learning important lessons in life (unless they are in danger of harming their self or others).

No one is to be tricked, forced, or trapped into unwanted sexual touching.

Big problems are never a 'secret' to be swept under the rug.
